(Board of Education)

The Ewing Board of Education has long recognized that education is the keystone to better citizenship. With full knowledge of its responsibility, this group has developed the Ewing public school system so that it rates among the highest in this vicinity. Besides providing the necessary materials for education, developing an insurance plan for students and adequate facilities for physical education and safety, they have taken an active part in community affairs. Despite growing responsibilities, they have not swayed from their service to education. This group has worked faithfully and has set an example for other smooth-running organizations.

Journey Chartered . .

In the literature of all people and in our conversation, life is often referred to as progress along a road, or a path, or a way. "Our School Journey", the theme chosen by the seniors for this yearbook, indicates that even now they wish to recall important milestones they have passed while in Ewing High.

As a faculty, we hope that you can look back upon your high school days as a good part of the longer journey, and that each of you will find the way which leads to true happiness and success.

. . . Hit the Road

For the past two years the faculty of Ewing High School put aside their professional duties to take on the job of amateur actors and actresses on the Ewing stage. This year was no exception; our teachers really tried to outdo themselves once again. The name of the play, "You Can't Take It With You," was written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman. It was a perfect play for a teacher to get as far away from the teaching profession as possible. To the observer, the plot was not of great importance; rather the audience was really more interested in the appearance of the teachers and their acting ability. We enjoyed such actors and actresses as Mrs. Marion Bilbee, who played the part of the alcoholic actress, Gay Wellington, and Mrs. Viola Udy, who gave a fine performance of a giddy playwright. Others recommended for the theatrical guild are: Mrs. Louise Coates, the Russian countess; Mr. Raymond Stekетee, a tax collector, as well as a host of other "characters." Mr. John Lacy had a dual job of acting and directing this year's faculty proudction with the able assistance of Miss Elinor Reidel.

The production, which was to raise money for senior scholarships proved to be a great success in two ways, for its entertainment and its financial gain.

SENIOR CLASS CABINET

The Senior Class Cabinet of the Class of '56 directed by Mr. Piffath and Lou Russo headed our school journey. Taking charge of our class activities, the group assumed the leadership essential to our organization. Our play, our prom, our trip, and our graduation were all a large part of the cabinet's responsibilities.

ALMA MATER

Ewing High, our school, our alma mater true,
With voices raised, our praises echo.
Hail, Ewing High!

Of love, and truth, you pledge your all to youth,
We'll oft return, in spite of dreaming.
Hail, Ewing High!

Each memory, each cherished thought,
Each wish fulfillment you have wrought
We'll treasure in our hearts forever-more.
This song we bring
To thee . . . we sing.

We leave your halls, ahead our future calls,
But through the years, we'll long remember,
Hail, Ewing High!

Class of '56

Journey's End

As the many years of study come to an end, we, the Class of 1956, leave Ewing High School as better citizens with a greater knowledge of the sciences and a more complete understanding of life. Some of us will go to college; others will don the uniform of our armed forces. No matter where we are or what we are doing, our days at Ewing will never be forgotten.

September 12, 1952, is the day we entered a large, lonely building; June 15, 1956, is the day we left an emporium of knowledge, friendships, and understanding. We shall also remember the confusion of another day when we received our eighth grade diplomas in the presence of other classmen. Then too, there will be the memories of an overcrowded school, a brave hall patrol, and a noisy cafeteria. Yet, fresh in our memories will always remain the canteens sponsored by the P.T.A., the student council dances, and our own junior and senior proms.

The most remembered activities will be the magazine drive; the junior play, Our Town; the senior play, The Madwoman of Chaillot; the trophies in basketball and baseball which we helped to win; and the trip to Williamsburg, Virginia, and Washington, D.C. But far above all the rest, the day of graduation—with its laughter and tears—shall never be forgotten. Since we have laid aside our caps and gowns, Ewing High is now not only our school but our Alma Mater. We are proud to have had a part in making our school the school it is. What now shall be make of ourselves?

THROUGH MANY DOORS

Ewing High's activities are formed on the basis of student requests. This makes it possible for just about any type of club to be formed. This policy has worked quite well throughout the history of Ewing, for there seem to be new clubs forming each year.

Activities

Student Council

One of the most important clubs in the school is the Student Council under the leadership of Mrs. Carolyn Updike. The council is composed of one member from each homeroom, the editor of the "Highlights", and the executive cabinet. This year the executive cabinet consists of Harry Foster, president; John Maddock, vice-president; Nancy Bair, recording secretary; Sally Hamnett, corresponding secretary; and Jean Stelljes, treasurer.

The purpose of the council is to try to solve the problems that exist in the school. This year the council sponsored a dance, took charge of an annual Students' Day, and among many other things held the Thanksgiving Drive which helped needy families of Ewing Township.

Gail Coates, Kathleen FitzMaurice, Vivian Kosofsky, Betty Hood, Katherine Martin, Rayna Ann Small, Rosemary Taylor, Regina Thomas, Judy Waters, Patricia Harnett, Beverly Hutton, Judy Levine, Jane Mikieliak, Janice Royson, Marthy Kramer, Dorothy MacCarroll, Edythe Spector, Jean Stelljes, Beverly Wucinski, Lillian Eubanks, Bruce Eisner, Greno Feole, Sam Lord, Bruce Martz, Gerald Miller, Joe Rubino, Scott T. # Orchestra

Ewing High School's fine Orchestra, which started with twelve players, has grown steadily to forty-two and will reach its peak of membership within the next year or so at seventy. They have had a busy year playing for the school plays, the two annual concerts (Christmas and Spring), the pops concert, and other special programs, such as graduation dedications, P.T.A. meetings and the baccalaureate service.

This year the orchestra was included in a music festival held at Trenton High School. They also planned to visit other schools in an exchange program.

Band

This year Ewing High had its first band which performed at our football games. Its spirit played a large part in the success of our football team. This group under the able direction of Mr. Lloyd Snyder, did much to boast our school's morale this year.

Senior Choir

Ewing High School's choir is active this year in the bringing of music appreciation to the student body.

Taking over the reins from William Moonan, last year's director, Elston Huck has initiated a new extra-curricular activity, the after-school choir. Membership to the activity is drawn from all grades.

Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff is comprised of selected seniors who, every Friday and often after school, pool their thoughts and efforts to produce Clepsydra, the Ewing High School yearbook. The work done by staff members is under the direction of several specialized editors who work directly under the editor-in-chief.

Newspaper

"Highlights," Ewing's school paper, will go into its fifth year of publication next year. This season Nancy Read acted as managing editor, while Mary Woods, Carol Anderson, Veronica Kuck, and Ralph Blumhardt worked as page editors. This year's advisor, as in previous years, is Miss Marjorie Staeger.

Membership of the press club this year is composed of students from all grades, unlike that of past years, when only sophomores, juniors, and seniors were eligible to participate.

Art Committee

The work of this committee has added greatly to the interest of the front hall. They have arranged many attractive displays which have been thoroughly enjoyed by both the students and the faculty. They have served to advertise the various school functions which tend to promote better school spirit. The committee is headed by Mr. Lawrence Mulligan and includes students elected for their art ability.

Mr. Mulligan, Marcia Owens, Judy Gorton, Don Juske, and Bill Stryker.

School Store

One of the best known and most popular places in Ewing High is the school store. It provides an invaluable service in supplying the necessities of school life and does much to enhance our school lives with its treats. The school store is run on a co-operative basis by the students under the direction of Mr. Charles Zahler. The profits of this organization are contributed to the student council who in turn puts them to good use in the school.

Dramatic Workshop

This year the Senior Dramatic Workshop is composed of junior and senior Thespians working hard on their many productions. Their biggest undertaking was represented March 16, when they presented a one-act play, "A Certain Man," written by Liz Martens' mother, and a three-act play, Moliere's "The Doctor in Spite of Himself". Besides this, the Workshop presented "The Valiant", a one-act play, to the school in an assembly on May 23. Exchange programs are another part of the workshop's curriculum. On April 16, "The Valiant" was given at Pennington High School.

Debate Team

The Debate Team of Ewing High School under the direction of Miss Constance Kozel has been very active this year. Among other things they have participated at practice debates, tournaments at the University of Pennsylvania, Cathedral High School, and Pennsbury High School. The officers of the team include Harry Foster, President; Mike Jacobus, Vice-president; Pat Moore, Secretary and Beverly Wizinski.

Canteen Council

This year the Canteen Council is under the leadership of Mr. Jiras. The officers and heads of committees are as follows: President Herman Meury, Vice-President Joanne Johnson, Secretary Beverly Richebacher, and Treasurer Jean Cacciatore.

Heading the committees are: Liz Martens, decorations; Patricia Arena, entertainment; Beverly Richebacher and Barbara Stelljes, tickets; and Kathleen Lore, refreshments.

Future plans of the club are primarily to promote better canteens.

Every Tuesday during seventh period the group meets and discusses ways to make a bigger and better canteen dance for you, the students of Ewing High School.

The work of this committee is enjoyed by the whole school. Once a month they sponsor a canteen, which they plan and run. Students take care of the cloak room, records, refreshments, and decorations. Parents and teachers come to chaperone.

Assembly

The senior assembly committee has endeavored to fulfill its purpose of presenting educational, inspirational, and entertaining programs for the eleventh and twelfth grade students. They have featured groups within the school such as, the Senior Dramatic Workshop, the Modern Dance Group and others, arranged for exchange programs with Pennington, Princeton, and Hamilton, and brought outside performers to our stage. Highlights of the season were Mr. Salom Risk and the Lafayette College Choir.

French Club

"Un Peu de France" under the advisorship of Miss Lenora Panaro, flourished this year for students with a particular interest in Gallic culture. The club was limited to those students who are taking or who have taken French.

Among the projects in which the club participated this year was a trip to Philadelphia.

German Club

The German Club under the leadership of Mr. George Ingenbrandt is attempting in a small way to familiarize its members with the language and customs of the German people. In this club the students are taught some of the German sayings and conversational expressions. They hear German recordings and learn some German poetry.

Cooking Club

One of the newer additions to the list of Ewing's activities, is the Cooking Club for Boys. Under the supervision of Miss Diane Tuttle, three different clubs meet on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays to learn the basic principles of cookery. The club is extremely popular, enrolling over sixty members. It appears that girls are not the only "chefs" at Ewing.

Throughout the year, the boys have concocted such savory dishes as apple fritters, Spanish rice, chili con carne, spaghetti, pizza pie, cakes, and cookies. Miss Tuttle hopes some day to teach a minor cooking class for boys as the girls now have.

Junior Red Club

The first and third Monday of every month is the meeting date of the active Junior Red Cross. The representatives from all homerooms in the school have accomplished much social and charity work this year. The club has chosen Beckie Brenfleck as its president. Mr. Irvin Jiras is the club advisor. Some of the work done in 1955-56 by this group has been a membership drive, a book drive for the children at Skillman Hospital, writing portfolios for the soldiers at Fort Dix and also the making of checkerboards.

Chess Team

The Chess Team, which was established at the beginning of this year, consists of members of the Chess Club. During the course of the year, the team played nine matches, three with each of the following: George School, Pennsbury, and Central Bucks.

Costume Club

The Costume Club, under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Boone, is a seventh period elective. This organization meets once a week. The purpose of the club is to acquaint the students with the art of costuming. The main activity of this club is designing costumes for school plays.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, sponsored by Mr. Cole and Mr. Cowie, meets four times a week. Our membership proves that chess is not just a game played by a few intellectuals. The Chess Club has about one hundred members, and although it is open to girls and boys, most members are boys.

The Ewing High School Future Teachers of America Club, under the direction of Mrs. Deborah Kvam, is open to students in the ninth through twelfth grades who plan to teach. Its purposes are to encourage interest in teaching, develop teaching ability, and help students choose a career. Activities of this club during the year included conducting installation services, attending conventions, observing in classrooms, listening to guest speakers, and holding many informative discussions.

Golf Club

The only short cut to acquiring a sound golf game is the right start. Keeping this in mind Mrs. Martin, the club proctor, has instituted an eleven point program which she hopes will achieve this aim. Such fine points of the game as the design and purpose of the clubs, the swing, putting, and common errors encountered by the players, have been studied. This course of study will be augmented by practice on local courses.

Kneeling: Ed Lugo, Linn Robinson, Neal Lenhart. Standing: Jim Maddock, Lee Talbot, Jack Mycock, Dave Mycock, Mrs. Regina Martin, Advisor.

Booster Club

The Booster Club is one of the most important clubs in Ewing High School. Under the guidance of Mr. William Di George, it is the school's chief money-making organization. This club also helps to promote good sportsmanship and school spirit.

The Library Council, under the direction of Margaret Whitley, is made up of one representative from each homeroom. Each pupil surrenders at least one study hall a week to working in the library. The council members check books in and out, keep current magazines in the rack, and keep the books in order on the shelves. The entire group meets once a month. Special groups meet every Monday to repair, stamp, and type cards for the books. The following are the officers of the council: Marie Albertson, president; Dan Adams, vice-president; and Barbara Vanderveer, secretary.

Guidance Club

The Guidance Club under the leadership of Mrs. Gladys Jensen is made up of students in grades nine through twelve. The main objective of this club is to acquaint the students who plan to go on to college or who plan to enter a vocation with the materials that our guidance office has to offer. The members of this club have various jobs, some of which are: correcting standardized tests, typing, filing, arranging materials for the vocational files, assorting pamphlets, and many other important jobs.

SPORTS

Majorettes

This year the Ewing High School majorettes made their debut twirling at football games. This encouraged school spirit and made a more colorful game.

Majorettes this year are Seniors Liz Martens, Nancy Read, and Edna Howell; Juniors Pat Moore, and Della Moore; Sophomores Mary Steketee, and Gail Coates and Freshmen Dotty Sanford and Penny Mount.

Cheerleaders

The varsity cheering squad is made up of five cheerleaders and two substitutes. These seven girls are Pat Arena and Beverly Richebacher, co-captains; Linda McConnell, Vonnie Ash, Patricia Tilton, and substitutes Elizabeth Bendrot and Aloha McCullough.

These energetic girls create many new cheers and improve the old ones. They arouse school spirit at pep rallies and lead the crowds at the basketball and football games.

Hockey

This year was the first that the hockey team has had any actual schedule under the guidance of Mrs. Viola Udy and Miss Shirley MacKinnon. The team has played various vicinity schools, including Pennsbury, Princeton, Florence, the Deaf School and Allentown.

Kneeling: Audrey Brewer, Carol Liptack, Sue Eames, Maryann Cray, Beverly Wucinski, Shirley Anderson, Adella Moore, Beverly Richebacher, Pat Inverso, Margaret Anderson, Pat Arena. # Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Mrs. Viola Udy and Miss Shirley MacKinnon, organizes all girls' sports and after school activities. They present a dance program every year. This year's dance program was "Hosteler's Holiday." The officers of this club are as follows: Betsy Willey, president; Sue Eames, vice-president; Betty Ann Smith, secretary; and Linda McConnell, treasurer.

Officials Club

This club meets once a month in the gym. The girls discuss and learn the rules of badminton, basketball, volleyball, hockey, and softball. Sometimes the girls referee interscholastic games, and games that are held during gym classes. The girls try to get rating by taking a test. If they pass this test, they are eligible to referee games outside of school.

Leaders' Corps

This organization consists of the elected officers of the various girls' gym classes. They meet once a month to discuss and try to solve the various problems concerning the gym classes. Under the direction of Mrs. Viola Udy, these girls manage to run the gym classes smoothly.

First row, left to right: Betty Ann Smith, Ginny Russo, Pat Kane, Toni Cortina, Irene Careyote, Carol Parziale, Madeline Richardson, Sue Eames. The 1955 varsity baseball season at Ewing turned out to be the most successful season in Ewing High's short history. Not only did the squad have a fine record of nine wins and four losses, but they also presented the school with its first intra-city championship.

Jerry Matcho, who sparked the squad with a tremendous .378 batting average, did all of the catching for the Blue Devils during their championship season. Jerry also received an "All-City" berth at the conclusion of the 1955 season.

Leading the Blue and White's pitching staff was Tom Glennon, who compiled a perfect four win, no loss record. One of the highlights of the season was a brilliant ten-inning shutout hurled by Tom Glennon, over Highland Park, by a 4-0 score. Also aiding the Blue Devil pitching staff was Emilio DeBlasio, who ended the season with a 2-1 record.

Other members of the class of '56 who contributed their abilities to the varsity squad were Don Davis, Oscar Jones, and Jim VanFleet. All three saw a great deal of action on the '55 junior varsity squad.

In their final contest of the season, the team began a rivalry schedule with Pennsbury High. The Blue Devils managed to get off to a fine start by romping over the Falcons by a 14-0 count.

JERRY MATCHO

RICH BELLANDO

The 1955 Ewing Varsity football squad ended their season with a four win, three loss record. According to Coach John Housman, this was the first successful grid season in Ewing's history.

In the Blue Devils' opener, the team took it on the chin from the Pennsbury Falcons by a 12-0 count. In the following contest, the team took on a powerful Trenton High Squad, who came from behind to edge out the Blue and White, 14-13.

The tide turned in the third contest of the season for the Blue Devils, when they tallied their first victory of the season by turning back Burlington by a 13-7 count. In the following contest of the slate, the team defeated Hamilton High, 19-7, to give Ewing High its first intra-city football victory in its history. The Blue and White managed to continue their winning spree in their next tilt, this time setting a new scoring record by romping over Matawan, 38-13.

The following week the Blue Devils' winning streak came to an end when a powerful Bernards High team outscored the Blue and White by a 14-12 count. The squad ended their season by setting back the Princeton Little Tigers to the tune of 13-7.

The squad lost five of their starters due to the '56 graduation. Nick Lannutti, Abe Vegotsky, and Jerry Matcho, who comprise three of these five starters, received an "All-City" position at the conclusion of the 1955 season. (Nick and Jerry were also the team's co-captains.) The other starters were Don Davis, who did most of the team's quarterbacking, and Bob Reynolds, who saw a great deal of action at the end positions.

John and Fred Nester both aided the Blue Devils in the backfield during the season, while Richard Bellando and Tom Glennon saw action off the line. Doing all of the punting for the squad was John Maddock, who also aided the squad as an offensive and defensive end. Forced to leave the team early in the season, due to a bad leg injury, was Andy Wagner, who held down a center position.

EMILIO De BLASIO

The 1955-56 Ewing basketball season, which according to Coach Wilbur Wimberg was a rebuilding one, turned out to be a setback for the Blue Devils. The Blue and White managed only four wins in a 20-game slate, for a season total of four wins, 16 losses.

The highlight of the season was senior Jack Mycock, who broke all of Ewing High's previous scoring records. Jack was second high scorer in the city at the close of the season, with a tremendous 19-point-per-game average. Jack also broke Bill Evanko's old record of 32 points in one game by seven points, for a new 39-point record.

Other seniors, who played their last this season were Emilio DeBlasio, Dick Gauck and Harry Moran, all who saw a great deal of action throughout the season as both starters and reserves.

Class History

Seven long years had gone into preparation for this most important of all trips. Before entering Ewing, we packed our heads with elementary primary information, trying to cope with our present problem while looking toward the future.

In eighth grade, with a new high school, all were ready to sail. We hoisted the mast of education for the "Class of '56" was on its way! Crew members were from Lanning, Parkway, Reed, and Fisk, guided on course by many helping captains including Mr. Steketee, Mr. Cooke, Mrs. Jensen, and all our teachers.

MR. LACY'S CLASS
Barbara Howarth, Janet Schwartz, Nick Lannutti, Bev Richebacher, Carol Haney, Ginny Inman, Jerry Matcho, Jackie Donovan, Connie Fogal, Doreen Johnson, Mr. Lacy, Gail Stakem, Jackie Rakosi, Lou Scartocci, Joyce Raymond, Carl Rebbeck, Nancy Bair, Jean Cacciatore.

A slightly different membership with the same names, but older, more knowing looks, comprised the ninth grade crew. Our class members had lived on the boat's deck for a year and knew "the ropes" completely. There were a thousand little things that let us know that "here we belonged."

In tenth grade we were older, wiser, still on course, with much ocean behind us, and many knots to go.

MR. ZAHLER'S CLASS
Janet Schwartz, Barbara Howarth, Mr. Zahler, Carol Haney, Bev Richebacher, Arthura Thomas, Lane Farrow, Lou Scartocci, Richard Timms.

MISS DAVOLIO'S CLASS

UNITED STATES HISTORY II

With but one boat in front of us and many waves closer to land, the "Class of '56" arrived at eleventh grade, the next to reach her destination on the horizon. Mr. Kenneth Pederson was at the helm, helping with the junior prom, class rings, and the magazine drive. Mr. John Lacy "commanded" us in Our Town.

FAMILY LIVING CLASS

TRIGONOMETRY CLASS

LIBRARY

HISTORY CLASS

The last hours arrive in twelfth grade! We prepare to leave ships with memories of all the people and events that made us a class, including Mr. Arthur Piffath, advisor, the happy hours rehearsing for The Madwoman of Chaillot, the scenery we worked on, the proms, the Washington trip. All these things are unrelated but uniting factors that will someday make us stop and say, "Being Midshipmen was fun."

TWELFTH GRADE GYM CLASS

SPANISH II CLASS

SCENERY PAINTING CLUB

Betsy Willey, Ruthann Olson, Edna Howell, Isabel Brancolino, Joe Kaplan, Sam Iorio, Abe Vegotsky, Artie Thomas, Judy Gorton, Marcia Owens.

WASHINGTON TRIP

The Senior Class trip was taken by train, bus, and boat, proving to be an adventure filled with gleaming, alabaster state buildings, historical sites, and newly learned facts about the American past.

Can those of us who participated in the event ever forget March 27, when, with high spirits bolstered by expectation, we boarded the train from West Trenton, arriving in Baltimore, Maryland, where chartered buses took us to Fort McHenry, then to Annapolis and Mount Vernon? Can we forget our steamer of the Old Bay line, with the beautiful wrought iron balconies, that for two nights was "home" while we toured Virginia?

What thoughts will come to our mind as we recall with, perhaps a melancholy pleasure, the old church at Jamestown, the colonial buildings of Williamsburg, and the government buildings in Washington? Surely many "Class of '56" members will smile, remembering not only the highlights of the trip, but also little incidents that made some laugh, and which many will forget in the dusky, eventful future. There was the rocking boat and the First Aid Committee armed with sea-sick pills. There were the tired feet and the sleepy looks, and the numerous useless souvenirs. The chaperones, Mr. John McHugh, Mrs. Gladys Jensen, Mr. Arthur Piffath, and Mr. and Mrs. Ridge Leedom, will never be forgotten. This trip made our class just a little bit closer and a little more reluctant to greet the future which would part the ways of many such happy memories and friends.

JUNIOR PLAY

The Class of '56 pulled into Grover's Corners, New Hampshire, on April 29, 1955, for a two-night stand to present our junior play, Our Town, by Thornton Wilder. The chief engineer on our trip was Mr. John Lacy.

Our trip took us on a guided tour through the lives of two young people. The tour divided their lives into three phases: an average day, love and marriage, and death. This type of play was a first for Ewing, for in it no scenery was used. The setting of the scene was left to the imagination of the audience and acting ability of the players.

Although much effort was put into the production of the play by the cast and crew, the humorous aspects seem to be those that are remembered. Everyone who saw the play will not forget Ralph Stout's entrance in the wedding scene wearing a Buster Brown hat and knickers.

When the production of Our Town was over, and our senior year had begun, we all found ourselves anxiously awaiting the production of our senior play.

JUNIOR PROM

The holiday atmosphere prevailed in the Ewing High School cafeteria on December 23, 1954, when we, the members of the Junior Class held our Junior Prom.

This all-important semi-formal social event under the direction of our advisor, Mr. Kenneth Pederson, was certainly a success. From nine o'clock until 12 o clock we danced to the music of Bill Holcombe. Our decorating committee had produced a wonderful atmosphere of a "Winter Wonderland".

After enjoying our Junior Prom so much, we anxiously looked forward to our Senior Prom, which was to be held on May 25, 1956 with the theme of "Fantasy Under the Sea".

SENIOR PLAY

Our senior play was titled, "The Madwoman of Chaillot," by Jean Gerandoux. It was presented to the public on December 2 and 3, under the direction of Mr. John Lacy.

Main characters included the Ragpicker portrayed by Ralph Blumhardt, Irma, Barbara Smith and Jean Cacciatore, Countess Aurelia, Jackie Rakosi and Cynthia King, Mlle. Gabriella, Mary Woods and Nancy Tait, Mme. Constance, Betsy Willey and Ginny Whitlock, Mme. Josephine, Ruth Mathis and Dean Stein.

This, our second attempt at drama, was more of a success than our first. The seniors enjoyed presenting this play as much as the people enjoyed watching it.
